

Promote Community Cohesion Through RE

R.E.

Headteachers, Head of Depts, RE Teachers

3

- * to understand the statutory duty to promote community cohesion
- * to examine how RE contributes to the duty to promote community cohesion
- * to review evidence from Ofsted about Community cohesion and RE

This course will help delegates understand the law relating to community cohesion and what Ofsted Inspectors are looking for as evidence in schools. There will be a focus on how religious education contributes significantly to community cohesion, with opportunities to discuss the implications for SMT and RE Heads of Departments.

Delegates will be able to look at a range of activities that promote community cohesion through various schemes of work.
